GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION

The General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR) is a regulation in EU law on data protection and privacy in the European Union (EU) and the European Economic Area (EEA). The GDPR is an important component of EU privacy law and of human rights law, in particular Article 8(1) of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union. It also addresses the transfer of personal data outside the EU and EEA areas.

The GDPR's primary aim is to enhance individuals' control and rights over their personal data and to simplify the regulatory environment for international business. Superseding the Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC, the regulation contains provisions and requirements related to the processing of personal data of individuals (formally called data subjects in the GDPR) who are in the EEA and applies to any enterprise—regardless of its location and the data subjects' citizenship or residence—that is processing the personal information of individuals inside the EEA.

When we process personal data of UK residents we are subject to the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulation (PECR) and when we process personal data of non-UK data subjects we are subject to the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (EU GDPR) and the PECR which applies across the European Union and we are responsible as 'controller' of that personal information for the purposes of those laws.

It is important that you read this GDPR Compliance policy together with any other privacy policy we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy policy supplements other notices and privacy policies and is not intended to override them.
